

PriceWaterhouseCoopers' Chair at the European Tax College (ETC)

Liedekerke is pleased to announce that Tilburg University and Katholieke Universiteit Leuven have appointed one of his partners, Professor Jacques Malherbe to the third Chair of the PricewaterhouseCoopers International and European Tax Fund.

Professor Malherbe is the third professor to hold this annually rotating chair.

Jacques Malherbe, partner with Liedekerke, is a corporate and tax practitioner. The International Chamber of Commerce (ICC) regularly appoints him as an international or private arbitrator.

He is the author of many publications including the Belgian Tax Management Portfolio and leading textbooks on international and European taxation and Belgian corporation tax. He lectures and frequently gives speeches on international topics.

In the ETC Spring Lecture 2010, Jacques Malherbe will deliver the course “Capita Selecta in European and International Taxation” between 2 March and 4 March.

For further information on the entire program of the 2010 Spring Lectures (*) and/or for applications, please contact Mrs. Yvonne van Hapert at Y.P.A.vanHapert@uvt.nl.
