Ellen Vermeire is part of the Corporate and Finance Practice Group.

She focuses on all aspects of corporate law especially on mergers and acquisitions.

She advises national and international clients in the context of mergers and acquisitions and assists clients with the constitution of companies and the opening of branches. In addition, she also deals with the corporate housekeeping of a number of large international companies.

Finally, she gives, more in general, advice on directors' liability, corporate governance and all kinds of company law questions.

Ellen holds a Master's Degree in Law from the University of Ghent (2013) and took part in the Erasmus exchange program at the Université de Montpellier (2012). She also holds an LL.M. in Economic Law from the University of Brussels (2014).

Ellen joined Liedekerke Wolters Waelbroeck Kirkpatrick in 2014.
