Nina Carlier is part of the European and Competition Law Practice.

Nina has been practicing law for almost five years and has developed a strong experience encompassing all aspects of competition law including merger control, cartel investigations, abuses of dominance and State aid.

She has also had the opportunity to develop an in-house legal counsel experience as she has been seconded to a newly created joint venture between two leading telecom operators. There, Nina acted as a temporary General Counsel and advised on competition compliance questions, hereby contributing to the development of the mobile access network of the future. She has a soft spot for digitalisation and its impact on competition dynamics.

Nina holds a Master's Degree in Law from Ghent University which she obtained Magna Cum Laude (2014) as well as a Degree in International Law and Legal Studies from the Université Libre de Bruxelles (2015).

Nina joined Liedekerke Wolters Waelbroeck Kirkpatrick in 2018.
