Esther Lanotte is part of the International Arbitration and Dispute Resolution Practice as well as Liedekerke's African Practice. With a strong Public International Law background, she represents clients before State courts, as well as in international arbitration.

Before State courts, she represents clients in various financial, commercial and corporate litigations in the banking, aviation, electricity and construction sectors, and advises clients in criminal investigations. She also focuses on arbitration-related court proceedings for both international investment and commercial arbitrations, mainly in setting aside proceedings, in complex arbitral awards enforcement proceedings, and in coordinating multi-jurisdictional proceedings.

In addition, Esther has participated in several international arbitrations subject to various laws (including OHADA, Democratic Republic of Congo and Belgian law) mainly under the rules of the International Chamber of Commerce. Esther also acts as Secretary of Arbitral Tribunal in ICC arbitrations.

Aside from her litigation practice, Esther has assisted clients on a wide range of corporate and financial transactions in the banking sector, as well as the gas, electricity and oil industry.

Before joining Liedekerke, Esther has practised for three years in the litigation and corporate departments of an international English law firm (2014-2017) and was Research and Teaching Assistant in EU Law and Public International Law at the University of Louvain (UCL 2018).

She holds a law degree from the University of Louvain (UCL 2013). During her education, she took part in an exchange program at the Università LUMSA, Rome, Italy. In addition, she graduated with an LL.M degree in International Legal Studies from the New York University School of Law (NYU) (USA).

Esther is a member of the Brussels Bar since 2014 and joined Liedekerke Wolters Waelbroeck Kirkpatrick in 2019. She became Senior Associate in 2021.
