Elisabeth Vanden Kerchove is a member of the European and Competition Law Practice headed by Stefaan Raes.

The team handles litigation and transactional work for major Belgian and International companies and renders advisory opinions. Elisabeth's practice encompasses all aspects of European and Belgian competition law including merger control, cartel investigations, abuses of dominance and state aid.

Elisabeth graduated cum laude from Vrije Universiteit Brussel (VUB) in 2019. During her bachelor and master's degree, she studied at Université de Fribourg (Switzerland) and the Institute of European Studies (ULB / IEE), where she was able to follow courses in English, French and German. In 2016, she participated in the summer school programme of the London School of Economics and Political Science, focusing on competition law. After completing her Master in Law, she obtained an LL.M. from the Brussels School of Competition, where her thesis on "Self-Preferencing" was awarded with the distinction Cum Laude. Additionally, Elisabeth has specialized in the economics of competition law by obtaining a Postgraduate in Economics for Competition Lawyers from King's College London.

Before joining Liedekerke, Elisabeth was a trainee lawyer at an international law firm based in Brussels (2019) and at a Swiss national law firm based in Zurich (2020). She has also completed several internships in national and international law firms during her studies.

Elisabeth became a member of the Brussels bar in 2019 and joined Liedekerke Wolters Waelbroeck Kirkpatrick in 2021.
