LIEDEKERKE AT A GLANCE

- Premier Belgian business law firm
- One of the largest independent law firms in Belgium with over 130 lawyers
- Offices in Brussels and London
- Only Belgian member of top tier international networks

OUR LONDON OFFICE

Liedekerke opened its London office in 2007 as a direct response to a growing involvement in international transactions and increasing demand for cross border advice from its clients. It remains the only Belgian law firm in London.

As a representative office, the firm's London office operates as a key point of contact between UK based clients and referral partners and the firm's Brussels and Kinshasa offices on all matters of Belgian and Congolese or OHADA law. The office assists UK companies and financial institutions with their investments in Belgium or the DRC and clients of the firm with their dealings in the UK. The office does not advise on UK law but collaborates closely with leading UK, US and foreign law firms in London for cross border matters outside its home jurisdiction.
